

CONFERENCE

16-18
MAY KASTORIA

Invitation to the
CLIMATE RESILIENCE POLICIES FOR COASTAL CULTURAL HERITAGE AT THE ADRIATIC IONIAN REGION
CONFERENCE IN KASTORIA

On behalf of the Hellenic Presidency of the EU Strategy for the Adriatic and Ionian Region (EUSAIR) and the Adriatic-Ionian Initiative (AII), we are honored to invite you to the “Climate resilience policies for coastal cultural heritage at the Adriatic Ionian Region” conference, taking place on May 17-18, 2025, at the Esperos Palace Luxury Hotel in Kastoria, Greece.

This event marks a landmark moment in the shaping of common climate resilience strategies focused on the coastal cultural heritage and it is consistent with the priority “Sustainability of Landscape, Historical Monuments & Life along the Coastline”, set by the Hellenic EUSAIR/AII Presidency.

The Conference will assess key aspects of the impact of climate change on coastal cultural heritage and the consequent essential adaption strategies towards the stabilization of sustainable futures. We will address issues related to climate change-related challenges, to future prevention and adaptation policies highlighting at the same time the need of intensive regional collaboration in cases of natural disasters and emergencies among the countries of the Adriatic – Ionian Region.

The Conference will be organized by the Hellenic Ministry of Culture, in collaboration with the Adriatic-Ionian Initiative (AII). It will host EUSAIR officials and representatives of the member-States, scientists and specialized professionals from Research and Educational Institutes and Organizations.

Practical information will be available soon.
We look forward to welcoming you to Kastoria!
