Francesca Alampi has been working as Policy Officer at the AREPO Representation Office in Brussels since January 2019, where she is responsible for representing the network at European level. In this capacity, she closely follows and contributes to EU policymaking in areas such as Quality and Promotion policy, the Common Agricultural Policy, and EU Trade policy. She also oversees the communication strategy of AREPO's activities.

Francesca is one of AREPO's designated experts within the European Commission's Civil Dialogue Group on Quality and Promotion. She has also served as expert advisor to Ms. Karine Gloanec-Maurin, rapporteur at the European Committee of the Regions, during the drafting of the opinion on the revision of the EU Geographical Indication (GI) system. She holds a Master's degree in International Relations and Diplomatic Affairs from the University of Bologna – Forlì Campus.
